

MAGGIE HOLLIS

A full-body photograph of Maggie Hollis standing in a record store. She is wearing a teal turtleneck sweater, a black pleated skirt, black tights, and black pointed-toe boots. She is looking off to the side with a slight smile. The background is filled with record crates, some labeled 'SPACE MONKEY RECORDS', and various posters, including one of a dog playing a guitar with the text 'Dogs Rock!'. There are also signs for 'REVENUE $12 SELECT' and 'PASSING LABEL CONTAINERS'.

ABOUT MAGGIE

From the beautiful bluegrass state, Maggie comes to you from a small town by the name of Henderson. Maggie brings a new meaning to the art of what is pop-country. From comparisons to Kacey Musgraves to Megan Moroney, Maggie is sure to entertain an audience. Having loved music and the art of performing her entire life, Maggie is more than excited to move to Nashville this upcoming August. She doesn't only play country music, Maggie is a lover of all genres. From Fleetwood Mac to Goo Goo Dolls, she has got your favorite artist covered. Maggie loves to entertain a crowd. She knows how to make a crowd dance, but she also knows how to make a crowd feel. Maggie has played many songwriters events including one in her own hometown, The Sandy Lee Songwriters Festival! She loves to just be her and her guitar truly letting the audience feel her words and hear the purely unique sound of her bluegrass originated voice. At just 19 years old, she is taking hold of the music scene!
